NAME OF CLUB	DESCRIPTION & DETAILS
Circle K International	Circle K International (CKI) is the largest community service organization at Orange Coast College let alone the LARGEST community college Circle K club in the entire world. The three emphases of Circle K International is to: Provide service, leadership, and fellowship opportunities to its members through service projects, committees, workshops, family and mentor/mentee programs, and many other opportunities that you can't find elsewhere. Circle K provides you with many opportunities and skills that will carry you through college and will benefit you even after college. There is so much to learn with Circle K and so many people to meet to expand on your horizons! Come check us out!
4Corners International Student Ministry	4Corners International Student Ministry is a student group focused on helping international students succeed at OCC, building friendships and relationships, learning about the Bible, and learning about one another's cultures. Our hope is really to form close friendships and to be a home away from home for anybody who is far from home. Hope you can join us this semester!
