I. o

All items under new business are discussion

	members such as Marine monitoring events (held in association with the Crystal Cove Conservancy), scientific conferences, and scientific guest speakers. These opportunities help students get the experience they need to stand out in job applications as well as get a foot in the Marine Science field.
	We will be meeting once per month to discuss about what's going on in the ceramics world and important issues regarding ceramics. We discuss the historical impact that it has on and in our society; and how ceramics is used in our every day life. In addition to that, we will prepare for our annual holiday sale.
	The Sikh Student Association or SSA is an organization supported through United Sikh Movement(USM). USM offers SSAs a four pillar structure that helps to combine all forms of Sikhi and school into the organizations which are Simran( meditation) seva (selfless service), Sangat (company/fellowship) &amp; Academics. Within this structure, SSAs host activities that help students develop Sikh oriented habits that include the three principles of sikhi Naam japo (recite its name), Kirat Karo (Earn honest living) and Vand Chako (share with the needs). Its purpose is to promote awareness and understanding of Sikh culture, traditions, and values among students. The club often organizes events, discussions, and cultural activities to foster a sense of community and educate others about Sikhism.
	MMRG is a student-led research group focused on studying marine mammals and their behavior. The data we collect on our surveys are sent to national databases used by organizations like NOAA, Aquarium of the Pacific, and SeaWorld. We meet every other week to hear presentations from guest speakers who are professionals in the field, as well as discuss news in the world of marine mammal research. We also have pizza and themed games at all of our meetings!
	Bring fashion to the people! The Fashion Department wants to create and foster a safe place for students, and everyone in general, to talk about the arts including fashion. The Fashion Department and the Fashion Club create opportunities for everyone to create, connect and collaborate with students, the industry of fashion and the arts.
	We create a community where OCC artists feel comfortable to be in while also allowing anyone from OCC who are interested in the arts.
	Queer Union is a club run by LGBTQ+ students for LGBTQ+ students. We welcome everyone to stop by and learn about the community whether you are in it or not. We provide a safe space for students to socialize, play games, relax, and just exist with a bit of peace even if just momentarily.
	The Chess Club is a welcoming, all-level space for all things chess! We meet weekly for open play, tournament preparation, providing lessons, and meeting professionals in the industry.

	The Japanese Student Association is dedicated to promoting and sharing Japanese culture at Orange Coast College. We host a variety of cultural and social events for Japanese students, exchange students, and anyone interested in Japanese culture. Join us to experience Japanese cultures, experiences, and connections within our diverse community.
	The Global Information Broadcasting Club (GIBC) aims to inform global issues and cultural diversity through social media and broadcasting. We focus on international/social issues and various cultural information to enhance our awareness, which would positively broaden our points of view as members of the global community. We look forward to a better world with more diversity and understanding.
	Our goal is to help people connect with an authentic group of friends, explore what it means to take the next step in their relationship with Jesus, and find practical ways to change our world together.
	Discover the International Student Association (ISA) at Orange Coast College, which brings students from all around the world together. ISA is more than just a club; it is a gathering place for people from many cultures to celebrate and interact. We organize enjoyable activities that highlight our uniqueness and bring us together. We have excellent support for international students because of our connections with the Global Engagement Center. Join ISA and help make our campus feel like a home for all students!
	We want to have a safe place for Jews to find a community on campus, you do not need to be Jewish to join if you are interested in learning about Judaism. We have events such as Shabbat every Friday night with free dinner.
	Provide students with a safe space to explore the world of horticulture, as well as make career connections and a focus on practicing sustainability as a community..
